BACKGROUND

Although our company is 'young', we have over the short span of time since the establishment of the company in 2000, achieved many successes and strengths. The company is led by our Director Mr.V.K.Yap, who has more than 27 years experience in the production and quality assurance of electronics equipment. Mr.Yap also has an artistic flare and he is the chief designer of the aesthetic features in the entire product range of Micro ID.

Coupled with our belief and practice of exhaustive research and development in the field of door access control, we have developed, and will continue to develop, products that meet the needs of customers yet not compromising on safety requirement of a secure and trusted door access system.

We strive to excel to meet your needs, to provide you the requisite design and a trusted product!
